

STARTING TOMORROW

and Continuing for Four Days at

THE ILLINOIS THEATRE

THE ARGUS

is pleased to announce that it has made arrangements to present the German side of the war in motion pictures—

On the Firing Line With the Germans

8,000 Feet, 8 Reels, of Thrilling Films

See these 8,000 feet of pulse-quickenng films taken from automobile and aeroplane—during Von Hindenburg's recent terrific drive into Russia—by Wilbur H. Durborough. Marvel at the daring which photographed these fearful big battle scenes, with shells spreading death and ruin all around!!!

Charges! Machine-gun fighting—mad, reckless work!! Rushes with the bayonet. Capturing 85,000 Russians—first facing a murderous hail of bullets and shells! Go up close to trenches, advancing troops, dashing cavalry, belching artillery!

Follow the German legions from the fatherland to Warsaw and Novo Goergeievsk, in Von Hindenburg's recent powerful smash into Russia!!! See them in the trenches—charging with bayonets—under hail of shot and shell—then Infantry, Cavalry, Artillery, Machine Guns, in gigantic combined assaults!! View the seven days' attack on one of the world's greatest forts—AND ITS CAPTURE!!

Don't miss this event of a lifetime. Know the war as it is! See with the eyes of a soldier on the battle line!

These Are the Same Pictures that Are Now Being Shown at the La Salle Theatre, Chicago

They will be shown here matinee and night for four days beginning tomorrow. Educational lecture at every performance by Ben Francis Whitney.

Prices 15c and 25c

DON'T MISS THIS